Dr. Angella Banks

#Dr. A

Dr. Angella Banks is the Founder & President of Xcellence, Inc. For the past 15 years, she has dedicated her life to developing, empowering, and promoting leaders while transforming communities through leadership. She is world renowned as “Dr. A,” the Global Leadership Strategist. She was given the name based on her strengths and mission to help leaders and their communities become their own solutionist to economic and civic challenges faced globally. In 2008, during the housing crisis and recession, she began to build and never stopped. Her living legacy is tokened with appreciation from leaders abroad for her unwavering support, commitment to see them win and excel, all while being kind and using her big and contagious personality to make them feel comfortable with change all along the way.

GLOBAL LEADERSHIP STRATEGIST

Dr. Banks is an "Esteemed Leadership Strategist!" Using a new leadership strategic model, she trains community leaders globally. Her signature leadership programs, "Dr. Angella Banks' Powerleaders" and the "7 Pillars to Power" focuses on developing leaders to reach their greatest potential while transforming their personal lives and the communities in which they reside. The programs are delivered through a virtual online platform or through on-site training. The curricula consist of a gifts assessment, and modules on identity, personal and professional development, community social justice, and servant leadership. The 7 Pillars consist of Business, Education, Media, Family, Spiritual, Government, and Arts.

Dr. Banks is recognized for her philanthropic works through Xcellence, Inc., a 501c3 tax-exempt global community leadership organization. Under the organization's umbrella are these entities, Xcellence Community University, Xcellence Community Magazine, and currently in the chartering process for "Xcellence Leaders Federal Credit Union." The organization is also currently on schedule to open its first Xcell4Life Multiplex Center in Tennessee, 'SUMMER 2023.

EXPERTISE & TOPICS

I have 20+ years in corporate and community leadership, entrepreneurship, and education. Through my works and partnerships, I've helped several leaders, entrepreneurs, dreamers, ministries, and organizations, reach pivotal points of success. I hold a Doctorate in Business Administration (DBA) with a Marketing Specialization. Through my unique mixture of both professional and personal experiences, I am able to quickly identify strategies to meet the specific needs of the audience. I have received rave reviews on my warm down to earthly personality, which allows me to easily connect and adapt to almost any culture and environment. Here are some most requested topics:

7 Pillars to PowerLeadership The Power Leaders Certification

Our society today is facing some of its most critical times! When we examine the core of some of these drivers, poor leadership skills will surely surface as a cause. I travel across the country training leaders in (7) key areas: business, education, government, entertainment, spiritual, media, and the arts. Through education and application, individuals are able to see themselves as powerful agents of change.

Dream it! Be it! Live it!

Using my signature brand of "iDream Big," I share my journey of quitting a full-time job at a Fortune 500 company, with no savings, and as a single mother to pursue a dream. I share strategies of how if you Dream it, one day you have to Be it, and then ultimately take ownership to Live it Out!
